The attention of the Army, Navy, and those Resident, or about to reside, in Foreign Countries, is particularly directed to these indispensable preparations.

SARSAPARILLA.

WILKINSON'S (LATE BRIDGE'S)

ESSENCE OR FLUID EXTRACT OF RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA

Is appreciated for its Purity and marked superiority; daily prescribed by the Faculty for Impurities of the Blood, Affections of the Liver, Constitutional Debility, Attenuation of Body, as an Alternative Medicine at the changes of the seasons, and for freeing the system from the effects of Mercury. In India and the Colonies it is extensively used to prevent taking Complaints incidental to tropical climates, and as a renovator of the System after Sickness, invaluable.

"A superior preparation that may always be relied on."—SIR ASTLEY COOPER.

"We are in every respect satisfied with it."—LANCET.

"We recommend 'Bridge's Sarsaparilla' as the best."—MEDICAL REVIEW.

"Lastly, in consequence of much debility, &c., subsequent to cholera, I have freely used 'Bridge's Sarsaparilla' myself with complete benefit and success."—J. PORT, M.R.C.S.

Sold in Pints, Half-pints, & Quarter-pints. One pint is equal to one gallon of the ordinary preparation.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The Public are cautioned against cheap preparations of Sarsaparilla, which, instead of being what they profess, are nothing more than a decoction of common herbs, sweetened with molasses, and flavoured with American winter green. The genuine has "THOS. WILKINSON (late BRIDGE), No. 270, Regent Street, London," engraved on each bottle.

QUINTESSANCE OF JAMAICA GINGER & CAMOMILE.

Ginger has long been deservedly known as an excellent domestic medicine, and, combined with Camomile, it is the most efficient Stomachic Tonic known; for whilst the Ginger relieves the stomach from Distension and Flatulency, arising from impaired digestion, the Camomile strengthens the coats of the stomach, and by that means gives it a healthy and invigorating tone. So highly concentrated is this preparation (a few drops being a dose), it is unimpaired by age or climate, and consequently well adapted for exportation. Full directions are enclosed with each bottle for the following complaints: Flatulency, or restoring tone to the Stomach, Cholera, Dysentery, &c. Gout, Rheumatism, Spasms, when the stomach feels distended after eating, for assisting digestion, Nervous Affections, &c., &c. Sold in Bottles, $\frac{1}{2}$ pints, and $\frac{1}{4}$ pints.

AROMATIC TINCTURE OF QUINOIDINE,

For the Prevention of Fever, Intermittent or Remittent, Ague, and other effects of Malaria.

This Preparation is proved by practical experience to be superior to Sulphate of Quinine, Amorphous Quinine, or any preparation of Chinchona Bark, as an Antiperiodic against Fevers, and as a Tonic, and also a Prophylactic.

No person exposed to the influence or predisposing cause of fevers, should be without it, for if taken in small doses daily, the system will become so thoroughly impregnated with its principles, as to be rendered proof against all attacks of Contagion or Malaria.

It may be mentioned that those who during the Campaign in the Crimea daily took a small quantity, passed entirely unharmed through the raking fire of Fever and Dysentery that thinned the ranks around them. Sold in Bottles, $\frac{1}{2}$ pints and $\frac{1}{4}$ pints.

BRONCHIO-THORACIC LOZENGES.

These Lozenges are prepared from the recipe of one of the most eminent Physicians of the day, and possess the peculiar power of lessening the viscosity of the saliva, increasing the fluidity of the mucus, and thereby relieving the Bronchial Tubes (or Air Passages) of that congestive material, which being produced by morbid action, diminishes their calibre, and is in fact, the entire cause of all the evils accompanying Catarrhal Affections.

ADAMS' NEW IMPROVED BREECH-LOADING GUNS AND RIFLES

HAVE OBTAINED

A First Class Medal at the International Exhibition, 1862.

Fig. 3.

Fig. 4.

Fig. 5.

Figs. 3, 4, and 5 show the mechanism of the action.

These Arms are now adopted by many of the leading Sportsmen of the day, and after several years' service in the field, are pronounced by all, to be the most simple, secure, and efficient, as well as the best mechanically arranged Arms yet introduced.

In these Arms, the objections urged against Breech-loaders generally, are entirely obviated. Instead of the hinge-joint having to sustain the shock of the discharge, it is released from this duty altogether, by the presence of a solid lump, which fits into a slot in the body, and receives the force of the concussion, and holds the barrels firm to the breech, while a double claw passing over an arc'd T-piece, holds the barrels firm to the body, and securely locks them till released for re-loading. By these two simple arrangements there is no possibility of the parting of the barrels from the breech or body, or of the action becoming in any way deranged. This is made evident by the experience of several years, during which time these Arms have been in use, and have never betrayed the slightest tendency to part at any of the joints, and are as sound in every respect as when they left the Factory.

These Arms possess other peculiarities and advantages. They have a front-action lever, which, when fastened, prevents the annoyance caused by opening when carried over the shoulder, which is frequently the case in those made on the old principle. They have bar locks instead of back action. The immense lump of metal near the breech end, in the old principle, is entirely dismissed in this, and they present an appearance as nearly approaching the muzzle-loader as possible. They are also capable of being converted into muzzle-loaders at pleasure.

FOR GENERAL EXCELLENCE.

SECOND ANNUAL PUBLICATION.

Now Ready, Crown 8vo., price 10s. 6d.,

THE

STATESMAN'S YEAR-BOOK;

A STATISTICAL, GENEALOGICAL, AND HISTORICAL ACCOUNT OF THE STATES AND SOVEREIGNS OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD,

FOR THE YEAR 1865.

BY FREDERICK MARTIN.

The Statesman's Year-Book for 1865, by Frederick Martin, which has just been published, contains a vast amount of new and original matter, in addition to the revised and corrected statistics of all nations, given in the last edition, and described by the Times as "a chart and calendar of the progress of the world." Prefixed to the new edition are a series of tables of comparative statistics, showing, at a glance, the density of population, the cost of government, the burthen of the public debts, and the maintenance of the reigning families of the various European States, together with the strength and cost of the standing armies, and the present state of the iron-clad Navies of France and Great Britain. The chief markets of the United Kingdom are likewise illustrated in this series, showing the consumption of British produce, per head of population, among the chief nations on the Globe.

It may truly be asserted that there is not a work in existence containing the same amount of statistical, historical, and biographical information as the Statesman's Year-Book, or, to quote a notice in the Spectator:—"There is not another publication containing such an analysis of the collected blue-books of the world."

MR. PALGRAVE'S TRAVELS.

CENTRAL & EASTERN ARABIA

BY WILLIAM CLIFFORD PALGRAVE.

[In the Press.]

In the guise of a Christian Physician of Damascus, Mr. Palgrave travelled from Gaza by Maan and the Jauf, to Hail, the chief city of the Jebel Shunna, and thence to Riadh, the capital of the Wahabite kingdom, where he remained for seven weeks in constant intercourse with the King, the nobles, and other people of the place. Hence he had to fly for his life. He then proceeded to Oman, the dominion of the Prince, usually called the Imaum of Muscat. Here also he remained for a considerable time, and at length returned to Bagdad. His journey occupied in all nearly eleven months; the route and the places visited are of the greatest possible interest to us, though hitherto almost entirely unknown to the Western World; whilst the author's intimate knowledge of Arabic, with the opportunities of studying all classes of men, which the possession of medicine gave him, are likely to render his narrative unusually vivid and precise.

GUNPOWDER.

MESSRS. JOHN HALL & SON,
(FAVERSHAM & LONDON,)

Beg to direct the attention of Gentlemen resident in Foreign Countries to the Sporting Gunpowder manufactured by them, which has for so many years enjoyed the highest reputation.

THE RIFLE GUNPOWDER,

No. 2. EXTRA COARSE GRAIN

(Packed in red Japanned Flasks with Metallic Stoppers);

AND

THE GLASS GUNPOWDER,

No. 1. FINE GRAIN, No. 2. COARSE GRAIN,

(Packed in black Japanned Flasks with Metallic Stoppers),

Can be procured in all British Dependencies, and in most Foreign States, and may be relied upon as of the highest quality, and as being unaffected by variations of temperature.

MESSRS. HALL & SON beg also to state that their very extensive manufacturing means enable them to undertake Contracts to any extent for the supply of POWDER FOR MILITARY PURPOSES to Foreign Governments, while their experience as large Contractors to Her Majesty's War Department affords a guarantee that the quality will be such as to ensure the utmost satisfaction.

HUBBUCK'S PATENT WHITE ZINC PAINT.

By their process, which is patented, the Pure White Zinc Paint is cheaper than White Lead. It is the most durable and beautiful paint known, and does not stain or discolour with the London atmosphere, or in the neighbourhood of Gas and Chemical Works. It has also proved superior to every other Paint in all climates, for the inside and outside of Ships, Lighthouses, Sluice-gates, Iron-roofing, and Bridges.

It is especially adapted for painting Iron, as, by virtue of a semi-galvanic action, it enters the pores and forms an amalgam of the two metals, which protects the Iron from decay or incrustation. It should be used instead of Red Lead, which is proved to be destructive to Iron exposed to Salt Water.

CHEAPNESS.

Not only is it cheaper per hundredweight, but two hundredweight of this Paint with six gallons of Oil, covers as much surface as three hundredweight of White Lead and twelve gallons of Oil.

ADULTERATIONS.

Some Paint Grinders have been selling Zinc Paint adulterated with Sulphate of Barytes, in proportions varying from ten to thirty per cent. No Workman can produce good work with such material. Those who have obtained the Patent White Zinc Paint from grinders who have not adulterated it will never willingly use any other Paint for their best work.

To prevent the prejudice which the inferior article must produce, each Cask of pure White Zinc Paint is Stamped—

HUBBUCK, LONDON PATENT.

Inferior Zinc Paint, so marked, having been sold in Foreign Markets, the Patentees offer a reward of FIFTY POUNDS for information which shall lead to the conviction in an English or Colonial Court of those who have pirated their mark. It is to be observed that dealers are also liable to prosecution.

THOMAS HUBBUCK & SON,

24, LIME STREET, FENCHURCH STREET, LONDON.

"For Public Schools, and all rooms occupied by children, there will now be no excuse for using poisonous paints. Parents have remarked that their children, on returning from the country to newly-painted houses, have suffered in health. The reason is evident: the breath extracts the poison from White Lead even after the paint is dry, and the lungs draw in the deadly vapour.

"Among other tests to which it has been subjected, has been that of painting the hold of a sugar vessel, which, after a voyage to St. Kitt's and back, is found, after washing, to be as white as the first day that paint was supplied."—John Bull, Sept 14th, 1850.

HISTORY

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, but this appointment was abolished in 1782.

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Turkey, &c.

In the 17th year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms “Northern” and “Southern” were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the “Home” and “Foreign” Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 29th year of the reign of George III, July 17, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War Department was separated from the Colonial Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, viz., for the Home, Foreign, Colonial, War, and India Departments.

It was then called the Oxford Gazette, but on the return of the Court to London it was called the London Gazette. The first number of the London Gazette was No. 24 of the Oxford Gazette.—(CUNNINGHAM'S Handbook for London.)

And in his despatch dated Head Quarters, Camp, Cawnpore, December 12, 1857, he stated, "When I passed the camp and went forward on the Calpee road, Major-General Mansfield was desired by me to make arrangements for the attack of the position called the Subadar's Tank, which extended round the left rear of the enemy's position in the old cantonments;" and, "I have a particular pleasure in again bringing to your Lordship's notice the zeal and great ability with which Major-General W. R. Mansfield, Chief of the Staff, has conducted the very important duties of his high position, and my obligations to him for the most valuable assistance he has afforded me during the whole of the recent operations. I desire also to call your Lordship's attention to the able and distinguished manner in which he conducted the troops placed under his orders, after the enemy's centre had been divided, to the attack of their strong position at the Subadar's Tank, and to recommend to your Lordship's favourable consideration the names of the officers who assisted him." Major-General Mansfield was slightly wounded on the occasion. In the General Order, dated December 23, 1857, the Governor-General in Council very cordially concurred in the praise so justly bestowed by the Commander-in-Chief on Major-General Mansfield, Chief of the Staff, and offered his cordial thanks for his gallantry and good service to the State; and added, it would be his pleasing duty to take the first opportunity of bringing his merits to the favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government, and of the Honourable Court of Directors. It is impossible for me to praise this officer too highly, or to recommend him sufficiently to the protection of your Lordship and of the Government." Mansfield, K.C.B., the Chief of the Staff. As it seems probable that active operations will now cease, I have the greatest pleasure in seizing the opportunity of recording my grateful sense of what I owe to this officer, and of recommending him in the strongest possible manner for the favourable consideration of your Excellency. Sir W. Mansfield executed all the details of the various operations which I had thought it advisable to order, with the greatest ability, and showed the most unwearied diligence in directing, as was necessary, the simultaneous movements of so many bodies of troops scattered often in small detachments over a very great extent of country; and his care and attention have in a great measure tended to bring about the very rapid and favourable results which have been obtained, and the course of which has been already related." On that vessel paying off in February, 1836, joined Col. Light, the first Surveyor-General of South Australia, as an Assistant Surveyor. Was the first in what is now called Port Adelaide, entering it by the northern channel when searching for a harbour in St. Vincent's Gulf, while holding the office of Marine Surveyor under Col. Gawler. Sounded and surveyed Lake Alexandria, and finally succeeded in taking a vessel (a cutter of six feet draught) in by the sea mouth of Lower Murray, to, what was named by the Governor, Port Pullen, thus opening a water communication with the sea and interior by the River Murray. About the middle of 1841 left Adelaide, and arrived in England in April 1842, touching at Moulmein and Cape on way home. In June 1842 re-entered the service as Midshipman, and was appointed to the Columbia, about to proceed to the Bay of Fundy, to survey it under the direction of the late Admiral Owen, and was named as one of his assistants. In November 1846 was made a Lieutenant; and on the Columbia paying off, in February 1848, was named for the Plover, the first ship sent in search of Sir John Franklin. In consequence of her not coming into Panama, where he was sent to await her arrival, he did not join her until July 15, 1849, in Kotzebue Sound, Arctic America, and ten days after, at midnight, left her, in command of the boats, for the mouth of the River Mackenzie on search of the coast of Arctic America. Entered the Mackenzie on August 23, and commenced the ascent of the river on August 29, arriving at Fort Simpson, one of the Hudson Bay Company's posts, October 3, where he wintered with a portion of his boats' crews, fourteen in number; the rest distributed over the country—some at Fort Macpherson, on the Peel, others on the Great Slave Lake (the extremes not less than 1,000 miles apart)—for subsistence on the ice, breaking up, and cleaning out of the rivers. In June 1850, with his re-united party, he left Fort Simpson, with the fur traders' brigade of boats, for York Factory. When on the Great Slave Lake, he met a despatch from England, ordering him to the coast again in search of Franklin's expedition, but to proceed easterly from the mouth of the Mackenzie as far as Cape Bathurst, and then strike off to the northward. This same despatch brought him a commission as Commander, bearing date January 1850. This second expedition failed, like others, in as far as nothing was successful in the main point; and after enduring many hardships, reached Fort Simpson again on October 6, 1850, the ice making fast, and often seriously impeding their progress to their winter quarters. In June 1851 he again left Fort Simpson for York Factory, Hudson Bay, passing through the interior of North America, by its rivers and portages, and finally, on August 28, reached York Factory; here embarking, on September 9, in the Hudson Bay Company's ship, and arrived in England in October 1851. In February 1853 he was appointed to command the North Star, one of the squadron under Sir E. Belcher, and the only one that returned to England out of the squadron of five, except the Resolute, one of the abandoned ships; but she was picked up only a year after, and brought to England in 1856. The North Star was paid off in October 1854, and just one month after he was appointed to the command of the Perseverance. Her beginning was disastrous, falling over in the Dock at Woolwich, when he, and what men he had entered, were transferred to the Falcon, sloop of war, of 17 guns. In June 1855 he left Spithead to join Admiral Baynes' squadron, and served in the Baltic in 1855 and 1856; the latter period, with the advance squadron, under Captain R. B. Watson. Formed one of the ships of the Starboard Division at the Naval Review at Spithead. Was made a Captain, May 10, 1856. Studied at the Naval College, Portsmouth, for the twelvemonth allowed by the Admiralty. Was appointed to the command of the Cyclops, September 15, 1857. In the course of the service he was sounding the Red Sea for telegraphic cable. Was present at the Massacre of Jeddah; was ordered to bombard the town; was Commissioner for the Settlement of the Affairs at that place, from July 31, 1857, till November 28, when he received orders that in consequence of his presence being required elsewhere, he was superseded by Mr. A. Walne, late Consul at Cairo, and as soon as he handed over all documents, &c., proceeded to sea in pursuance of orders from the Admiralty to carry on the soundings for telegraphic cable. The Cyclops returned to England, May 6, 1861.

REGULATIONS

CONCERNING THE

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, 1865.)

Act 17. annexed to the TREATY OF VIENNA, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Conferences of the Five Powers at Aix-la-Chapelle. (Ministers Resident.)

PROTOCOL, November 21, 1818.

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

CONCERNING THE

The Consular Service consists of the following Classes:

REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR APPOINTMENTS IN AND UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

(In force, January 1865)

For CLERKSHIPS on the Establishment of the FOREIGN OFFICE.

(Approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856, and revised by Earl Russell, December 8, 1864.)

CANDIDATES for Clerkships on the establishment of the Foreign Office will be required to undergo a competitive examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to satisfy the Commissioners—

1st. That they can write a good bold hand, forming each letter distinctly.

2nd. That they can write, quickly and correctly, English and French from dictation.

3rd. That they understand French well; the test of their doing so to be that they can make an accurate and good translation of any French paper.

4th. If all the competitors express a wish to be examined in French composition and French conversation, as further evidence, beyond what is afforded by an accurate and good translation, that they understand French well, they will be permitted to be examined in and to obtain marks for those accomplishments.

5th. That they can make a correct and clear précis or abstract of any set of papers placed in their hands.

6th. That they understand German well; the test of their doing so to be, that they can make an accurate and good translation of any German paper in print; and also that they can read the German written character: the marks in German translation and writing to be counted as far as they go, without any minimum to be necessarily obtained.

The limit of age for Candidates is between 18 years complete and 24 years complete, except in the case of those who may not reside with relatives, or have an established and respectable home in the metropolis or in its immediate neighbourhood. In this latter case the minimum of age is 20 years complete.

(See also page 190.)

For HER MAJESTY'S DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

(From the London Gazette of September 16, 1862.)

1. Nomination, Qualification, and Examination of Candidates for Unpaid Attachés.

CANDIDATES for the situation of Attaché in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service will continue to be nominated by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and they must be prepared to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners within 6 months after their nomination if they elect to undergo only one examination (which single examination will, in that case, exempt them from any further examination previously to their receiving Commissions as Secretaries), or within 3 months if they prefer to undergo two examinations as heretofore. In the latter case the second examination may be deferred until the candidate is prepared to undergo it.

Candidates on presenting themselves for examination on their nomination must have completed the 21st year of their age, and not have exceeded the 26th.

In the case of candidates electing to undergo only one examination, such examination will comprise the following matters:—

- a. Orthography and handwriting.
- b. General intelligence, as evinced by the manner in which the candidate acquits himself, and specifically by the quickness he may show in seizing the points in papers read to him, or read over by him, once or twice.
- c. Précis.

d. The candidate must satisfy the Examiners that he is thoroughly well grounded in the Latin grammar, and that he is able to construe and parse a portion of some good classical Latin author, and to give the derivations of words.

e. An accurate knowledge of French grammar, fluency in French conversation, correctness of translation from French into English, and from English into French, and French composition.

f. An accurate knowledge of German grammar, a tolerable degree of fluency in German conversation, and correctness of translation from German into English, and from English into German.*

g. A fair knowledge of the political history of Europe, and of North and South America, from the year 1660 to 1860 inclusive, and of the most important international transactions during that period.

- h. A general knowledge of geography.
- i. The first four rules of arithmetic and decimal fractions as given with examples in Coleman's Arithmetic.
- j. The first book of Euclid.
- k. A general knowledge of maritime and international law, to be acquired from Wheaton's "Elements of International Law," and the first volume of Kent's "Commentaries."

1. Candidates will be allowed, at their option, to be examined in Spanish and Italian in addition to the above subjects.

In the case of candidates electing to undergo two examinations, the first examination will comprise the following subjects:—

1. Orthography.
2. Handwriting.
3. Précis.
4. Latin.
5. Arithmetic.
6. Geography.
7. General intelligence, except as regards specific tests.
8. An accurate knowledge of French grammar, correctness of translation from French into English, and such a facility of speaking French as may show aptitude for acquiring fluency after a residence abroad.
9. An accurate knowledge of German grammar.
10. A general knowledge of the political history of Europe, and of North and South America, from 1790 to 1815, comprising an acquaintance with the most important international transactions of that period.

In either case, candidates who have passed the first public examination in classics at one of the Universities in Great Britain or Ireland will be exempted from being examined in Latin.†

Candidates who shall have elected to undergo two examinations must be prepared to satisfy the examiners, if required to do so, as to their acquaintance with the various matters which come within the single examination (except as regards Latin, geography, and arithmetic, in which such candidates are exempted from being re-examined); and they will, moreover, be required, for their second examination, to draw up a report on the

* Note A.—If a candidate going up for his second examination should not, in the interval between the two examinations, have resided a reasonable time, 12 months for instance, in Germany, he shall be at liberty, if he should so desire it, to substitute for conversation in German conversation in some other foreign language besides French.

† Note B.—In this case the candidate, on going up for examination, must exhibit to the Civil Service Commissioners a certificate from the duly constituted authorities, Examiners, or others as the case may be, in each University, that he has passed the first public Examination in Classics, in whatever manner that examination may have been conducted, and to whatever points it may have been directed.

general commercial and political relations of the several countries in which they may have resided; and on the internal policy and administration, the social institutions, and the character of the people of such countries.

If a candidate offering himself for the single examination should fail to satisfy the Commissioners to the required extent, but should evince such a knowledge of the subjects on which he may have been examined, as would have obtained for him a certificate of fitness if he had only offered himself for a first examination, the Commissioners will, in such case, give a certificate as for a first examination; and the candidate will eventually have to present himself again before the Commissioners for the second examination.

2. Period of Service of Attachés on Probation.

The service of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate first granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for 4 years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed for 6 months in the Foreign Office,* and must also have actually resided at one of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office, for a further period of 3 years. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of 4 years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled; and it will likewise be prolonged in the case of candidates who may have elected to undergo two examinations, until the final certificate of the Commissioners has been obtained.

3. A Salary of £150 a-year will be granted, contingently, to Attachés on completion of their Probation.

A Salary at the rate of £150. a-year will be granted to Attachés on the termination of the period of probation, and on the receipt from the Minister under whom they have last served, of a certificate showing that their general character and conduct, during the time they have so served, have been satisfactory; and that, as far as such Minister has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

4. Abolition of the designation of Paid Attachés. Commissions as 2nd Secretaries to be granted to Paid Attachés.

The designation of 1st and 2nd Paid Attaché is abolished; and in lieu thereof will be substituted the designation of 2nd Secretaries, which will be conferred by Commissions under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual.

5. Commissions as 3rd Secretaries to be granted to Unpaid Attachés on completion of their Probation.

Commissions as 3rd Secretaries will also be granted under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual to persons now serving as Unpaid Attachés, or who shall hereafter be appointed Unpaid Attachés, on the fulfilment of the conditions applicable to such persons, as specified in the present Regulations.

It is clearly to be understood that the aforesaid Commissions of 2nd and 3rd Secretaries will not imply appointment to any particular Embassy or Mission; but the holders thereof will be subject to the same conditions and liabilities as to removal from one Mission to another, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, as those to which Attachés of all classes are now liable.

Secretaries of the 2nd and 3rd Classes may be indiscriminately attached, either to an Embassy or to a Mission; and the circumstance of having been attached in either of the above capacities to an Embassy will not preclude transfers in the same capacity to a Mission. Moreover, there may be more than one Secretary of either of the above classes attached, at the pleasure of the Secretary of State, to any Embassy or Mission.

6. Number of 2nd Secretaries; and Salaries.

There will be a fixed number of 2nd Secretaries, determined by the number of 1st and 2nd Paid Attachés at the date of the issue of these Regulations.

The Salaries of 2nd Secretaries will be fixed at the same rates as those now assigned to 1st and 2nd Paid Attachés in the respective Embassies and Missions; it being understood that such rates have reference to the character of the Embassy or Mission, and not to the services of the 2nd Secretaries, who may be removed, without claim to compensation, from an Embassy or Mission where the rates are higher, to an Embassy or Mission where the rates are lower.

7. Rules as to Pensions of the 4th Class.

In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of 2nd and 3rd Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 2 & 3 Wm. IV. cap. 116,† from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they are eligible for a pension of the 4th Class only, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted; provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the 60th year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as 2nd or 3rd Secretary.

8. Provision for the Transfer of the Junior Members of the Diplomatic Service from one post to another; and Payment of their Expenses of Removal.

2nd or 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than 2 years consecutively, irrespective of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave, in the same Embassy or Mission, unless for special public reasons. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, 2nd and 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal by reason of promotion or otherwise on public grounds, receive such an allowance as shall be sufficient to cover the actual expense of their personal journey by land, or the actual amount paid for their personal passage by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another; and in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of 2nd Secretaries, a similar allowance for one servant, if they have one; but no allowance will be made under the head of subsistence during a journey by land; neither will any allowance be made for the expense of the journey or subsistence of the families of any such Secretaries or Attachés. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board of one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the allowance made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations.

No allowance will be made to the Junior Members of the Diplomatic Service for Journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence; but in all such cases the expense of the Journeys from and on returning to their posts will be exclusively at their own charge.

It is understood, moreover, that in the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, Secretaries or Attachés, unless specially excused from doing so, will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and, in that case, they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

9. Interchange of Employment between 2nd and 3rd Secretaries and Attachés, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

The Secretary of State will, should he see occasion, for the advantage of the public service, allow 2nd and 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the three Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case such an allowance to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office, the period, over and above the 6 months which are obligatory as stated in section 2, during which he shall be actually employed in the Foreign Office, shall reckon towards the 3 years during which he is by these Regulations to reside at an Embassy or Mission abroad.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secre-aries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the classes of Secretaries or Clerks to which each of them belongs, the Clerk receiving an acting appointment as Secretary of such class. The same principle will apply in cases of permanent interchange.

If a Clerk in the Foreign Office should be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service, or should be temporarily employed with a Special, or with an Ordinary, Embassy or Mission, he will receive a Commission or an acting appointment, as the case may be, as Secretary of the 2nd or 3rd Class, according to the length of his service in the Foreign Office; but he will, as regards others then in the same class, enter it as the Junior.

10. Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

With a view to relieve Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the deduction to be made from their salaries will in future be limited, for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of their departure from their posts, to the sum required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargés d'Affaires according to the present Regulations; on the expiration of which period the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of 60 days may either be one of 60 consecutive days, or of 60 days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January.

11. Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary, by reason of war or other interruptions of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, assign to any such person a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension assigned to the class to which he belongs, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance being, however, strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the 7th section of the Act of 2 & 3 Wm. IV, c. 116.*

12. Date at which present Regulations shall take effect.

The foregoing Regulations shall take effect from the 1st day of October, 1862; but Unpaid Attachés appointed previously to the 1st of January, 1861, will be allowed until the 1st of July, 1863, to undergo their second examination, according to the Regulations now in force; and if, on such second examination, they obtain their certificates, they will retain their present Precedence, but not otherwise.

All persons nominated as Attachés subsequently to the date of the present Regulations will be subject to the provisions as to examination therein contained.

The condition of employment for 6 months in the Foreign Office (§ 2) will not be enforced with regard to Unpaid Attachés in the service abroad at the date of these Regulations; but such Unpaid Attachés must have passed both examinations under the existing Regulations, must have actually resided for a period of 3 years at one or more of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, must have completed 4 years from the time of their entering the service, and must be provided with the certificate from the Head of the Mission under whom they have last served, specified in Clause 3 of these Regulations, before they can receive a Commission as Secretary of the 3rd Class, or the Salary at the rate of £150 a year assigned to that Class. Those persons who continue in the service, or who shall hereafter enter the service, as Unpaid Attachés, will be denominated "Attachés."

(Signed) RUSSELL.

Foreign Office, September 15, 1862.

For CONSULAR APPOINTMENTS.

(Approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856.)

Persons selected for the Consular Service—whenever the circumstance of their being resident in England on their first appointment, or of their passing through England on their way to take up such first appointment, may admit of their being subjected to examination—will be expected to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

1st. That they have a correct knowledge of the English language so as to be able to express themselves clearly and correctly in writing.

2nd. That they can write and speak French correctly and fluently.

3rd. That they have a sufficient knowledge of the current language, as far as commerce is concerned, of the port at which they are appointed to reside, to enable them to communicate directly with the authorities and natives of the place: a knowledge of the Italian language being taken to meet this requirement as far as any place situated to the east of the Straits of Gibraltar is concerned; and a knowledge of the German language as regards ports within the Baltic, or countries having ports in the Baltic.

(See also page 192.)

4th. A sufficient knowledge of British Mercantile and Commercial Law to enable them to deal with questions arising between British ship-owners, ship-masters, and seamen. As regards this head of examination, candidates must be prepared to be examined in "Smith's Compendium of Mercantile Law."

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force. (1855.)
(In force, January 1865.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Service before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previous to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy, for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

CLARENDON.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS. APRIL 21, 1858.

(In force January 1865.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that in order to facilitate still further the obtaining of Passports by British subjects desiring to proceed to the Continent, Passports will henceforth be issued to any British subject who shall produce or send to the Passport Department of the Foreign Office, or to any one of the undermentioned agents at the outposts, a certificate of his identity, signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom. Every such certificate must bear the signature of the person in whose behalf it is granted; and when it is forwarded to the Foreign Office by post, it must, if it be required that the passport should be sent by return of post to the person who granted the certificate in order that he may deliver it to the applicant for the passport, be accompanied by a Post Office Order for the amount of the fee; or if forwarded by post to an agent at an outpost, the postage must be prepaid. But an agent at an outpost will only deliver passports to persons applying for them there in pursuance of such certificate, and will not send them by post to any person whatever. The application for the passport if addressed to "Her Majesty's Secretary of State, Foreign Office, London," should have the word "PASSPORT" conspicuously written upon the cover. The names of the agents whom have been appointed to issue Foreign Office passports at the under-mentioned ports are:—(see page 173).

The certificate of identity should be worded in the following form, and must be signed and sealed by the person giving it—a naturalized British subject, _____ to travel on the Continent (accompanied, as the case may be, by his wife and children, with their Tutor, named C.D., (Christian and Surname to be written at length), a British subject, _____ and governess, and maid servant [or servants], and man servant [or servants]

(Date of Place and Day of the Month).

 a naturalized British subject, named E.F., a British subject [or subjects], and a courier, named G. H., a naturalized British subject.

 signature.)
 (Seal.)

Signature of the above-named _____

If the applicant for a passport be a naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization, with his signature subscribed to the oath printed on the third page of it, must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the certificate of identity granted on his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport, to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such naturalized British subject, not being a servant included in his employer's passport, to sign the passport in his presence. But the agents at the outposts are not authorized to grant passports to naturalized British subjects.

The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is two shillings, and that sum is to be paid on the delivery of the passport; or if it is desired that the passport should be sent by post, then that sum must be forwarded with the application for the passport by a Post Office order, made payable to the "Chief Clerk of the Foreign Office," at the Post Office, Charing Cross, London: the necessary instructions upon this point have been sent by the General Post Office to every money order office throughout the United Kingdom.

But any person whose certificate of identity has been received from the country, may obtain his passport by calling for it at the Foreign Office on the day following the receipt of the application, either in person or by deputy—the deputy, in the latter case, exhibiting a signed authority from his principal, in order that the signature may be compared with the signature in the certificate; but in this case the words "Passport will be applied for at the Foreign Office," must be added to the certificate of identity.

The form of application heretofore adopted by Banking firms will continue to be used by them.

The General Regulations for Passports, as now amended, are as follows:—

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing; and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Chief Clerk, Foreign Office, London," or to an Agent at one of the specified outposts, with the word "PASSPORT" conspicuously written on the cover.

2. The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is two shillings, which sum includes the stamp duty of sixpence.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject" he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, and previously to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; or should the certificate be dated subsequently to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will in that case be marked as good for six months only: but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at any future period, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport for a further limited period of one year, without being required to pay a fresh charge.

4. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office, between the hours of eleven and four, on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received at the Foreign Office; but the passports will be issued at the outposts immediately on application, accompanied by the production of a certificate of identity, within such hours as may be fixed with regard to the convenience of persons desirous of embarking for the Continent.

5. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any Banking Firm established in London, or in any other part of the United Kingdom; or upon the production of a certificate of identity signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom.

6. A passport cannot be sent by the Foreign Office, or by an agent at an out-port, to a person already abroad; such person, being a British-born subject, should apply for one to the nearest British mission or consulate.

7. Foreign Office Passports must be countersigned at the mission in London, or at some consulate in the United Kingdom of the Government of the country which the bearer of the passport intends to visit.*

8. A Foreign Office passport granted to a British-born subject, or to a "Naturalized British subject" whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to August 24, 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the continent, if countersigned afresh by the Ministers or Consuls of the countries which the bearer intends to visit; but a passport granted to a "Naturalized British subject" whose certificate is dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, is only available for the period for which the passport was originally granted.

Foreign Office, June 17, 1864.

* It is requisite that the bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport before he sends it to be visé at any foreign mission or consulate in England; without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. And travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Austrian or Russian States at any time in the course of their travels on the continent, are particularly and earnestly advised not to quit England without having their passports visé at the Austrian Embassy or Russian Consulate in London: but there is no necessity for the visa of the Bavarian, Belgian, Danish, Dutch, French, Italian, Prussian, Spanish, or Swedish and Norwegian Diplomatic or Consular Agents in the United Kingdom.

DIPLOMATIC PENSIONS.

(1.) Third Report from the Select Committee of the House of Commons, on the Income and Expenditure of the United Kingdom.—June 26, 1828. (Extract.)

Pensions to Foreign Ministers.

THE Committee think it right to present to the House, in this Report, some observations on the subject of Pensions to Foreign Ministers while unemployed, these having been regulated by the Act 50 Geo. 3 [1817], relating to superannuations, to which they have made such frequent reference in this Report.

These pensions form a charge on the third class of the Civil List. The following clause of the Civil List Act of 22 Geo. 3, cap. 82, sec. 18, [1782,] explains the manner in which these pensions were granted, till they were placed under the regulations of the 50 Geo. 3, cap. 117, [1810.]

And whereas it hath been usual that persons who have served the Crown in Foreign Courts have, after the expiration of their service, at His Majesty's pleasure, received such proportion of their former appointments as to His Majesty hath seemed expedient: Be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained relative to pensions shall be construed to extend to such allowance, either at present or in future, provided the said persons do not severally enjoy some place or other profit from the Crown to the amount of the pension usually allowed in such cases: provided that the list of the said pensions shall be laid, in the manner before mentioned, before Parliament.

The names of those persons who receive pensions are contained in the Appendix to this Report.

By the Act of the 50 Geo. 3, it is provided: "That no pension shall be granted to any person on account of having served the Crown in Foreign Courts within less than ten years from the date of his first appointment on such service, during which time he shall have served not less than three years; and no such allowance shall exceed 2,000*l.* a-year, and every such allowance shall abate if such person be appointed to any civil office or employment under the Crown of equal or greater amount, and shall also be subject to a proportionate abatement if the value of any such office or employment shall be less than the amount of such allowance."

As the Act of the 56 Geo. 3, cap. 46, sec. 4, [1816,] provides that the savings which may be made in the third class of the Civil List shall be carried to the account of the Consolidated Fund, the public have a direct interest in keeping this branch of expenditure within its proper limits. It appears, from the return in the Appendix, that the sum paid on account of Diplomatic Pensions during the year 1827 was upwards of 57,000*l.* This sum is considered by your Committee as exceeding the just amount which ought to be assigned to the unemployed Diplomatic servants of the Crown; and they, therefore, recommend that the annual sum allotted to these pensions should in future be limited to 40,000*l.* in the whole, and that, until the present amount shall be brought within that limit, it should not be competent to the Crown to grant more than 2,000*l.* in any one year, excluding from this limitation any pension which, having been once granted and afterwards suspended by the acceptance of some other appointment, may again come into course of payment.

It appears further necessary to lay down more precise regulations with respect to the periods of service which shall in future give a title to such a provision. Your Committee, therefore, recommend:

1. That no person whatever shall be entitled to receive a Diplomatic Pension until the expiration of fifteen years from the date of his first commission, nor unless he shall have actually served ten years.
2. That no person shall be entitled to a pension of the first class (2,000*l.* a year) unless he shall have actually served three years as Ambassador at some Foreign Court.
3. That pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at the greater Courts shall not exceed 1,500*l.* a year, and shall not be granted until after five years' residence in that capacity at a Foreign Court.
4. That pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at the other Courts, and to Ministers, shall not exceed 1,000*l.* a year after a similar period of residence.
5. That pensions in the remaining class shall not exceed 800*l.* a year, under the same conditions as to time of residence.

It will be proper, further, to provide that all Diplomatic Pensions shall be held subject to the condition of forfeiture in case of refusal to proceed to any mission of equal or higher rank, and of suspension or abatement in any case in which the party receiving the pension may be appointed to any other office of profit under the Crown.

In addition to these restrictions, the Committee were desirous of checking, by some positive rules, a practice which has prevailed to a considerable extent—of giving retired pensions to Diplomatic servants having sufficient private fortunes; but finding, on mature consideration, great difficulty in laying down general regulations applicable to all cases, they think it better to content themselves with expressing their marked disapprobation of this practice. It could never, under any circumstances, be justifiable; but, if the whole fund be limited, as above recommended, to 40,000*l.*, the Committee trust that this abuse will be prevented by a consideration of the evident injustice of burdening the fund with improper charges of this description, to the prejudice of those who have equal claims with respect to their service, and better claims in respect to their pecuniary circumstances.

June 26, 1828.

(2.) Report from the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Civil Government Charges.—October, 1831. (Extract.)

THE next branch of Expenditure which your Committee proceeded to examine was that of the Diplomatic Service; and on this subject their inquiries were aided by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who attended for the purpose of giving any explanations that might be required from his Department; but before they applied themselves to the examination of the details of this Estimate, it appeared a matter of serious consideration to examine in what manner it might be most consistent with the Public interest to provide for the Diplomatic Servants of the Crown. Hitherto this branch of Expenditure has been borne on the Civil List: and at the Accession of His present Majesty it stood as follows: £196,950 for the effective and non-effective Diplomacy.

The Select Committee of 1831, having excluded this charge from the Civil List, the first point to be decided by your Committee was, whether the Diplomatic Expenditure should be hereafter charged on the Consolidated Fund, or should be voted annually in Supply. In either case, the expenses of Foreign Missions would be brought under the full knowledge and control of Parliament; but it appeared to your Committee, on deliberation, that it was not expedient to introduce charges of this nature into the Annual Estimates. Your Committee therefore recommend, that a provision should be made for this Service, chargeable on the Consolidated Fund. This arrangement will ensure, that all savings which may be made shall at once go to the Public Account, and will enable Parliament at all times to take cognizance of, and pronounce a judgment upon, any Diplomatic Expenditure which may properly be made the subject of inquiry or animadversion. In order to afford an additional security against abuse, it is the opinion of your Committee, that a statement of these Accounts should be annually laid before the House

These arrangements appear to your Committee to be at once calculated to protect the Public interests in the Foreign relations of the State, and to guard against improvident or lavish expenditure.

The amount which is recommended for the future effective Diplomatic Expenditure of the Country, exclusive of Pensions to retired Ministers, is £140,000, which not only effects the reduction recommended by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in November, 1830, but carries those reductions still further.

This Estimate also makes provision for four new Missions, which the state of Europe and of the Americas may render it expedient, in the opinion of His Majesty Government, to establish, for the protection and promotion of British Interests. The Salaries of the First Attachés, heretofore defrayed out of the Civil Contingencies, and which amount to £2,950 a year, are also included in this Estimate.

If by temporary vacancies or absences on leave, the whole sum included in this Estimate should not be taken, the surplus in each year will become a saving to the Public.

Your Committee have found, with satisfaction, from the letter of the Secretary of State of the 31st of August, 1831, that in deciding upon all future claims for Diplomatic Pensions, Lord Palmerston proposes to be strictly guided, as to the scale and limitation of such Pensions, and as to the eventual limitation of their amounts, by the recommendation contained in the Third Report of the Finance Committee of 1828; an extract from which is inserted, for more convenient reference, and for more precise information:—

"It appears further necessary to lay down more precise Regulations with respect to the Periods of Service, which shall in future give a title to such a provision. Your Committee therefore recommend,—

"1st. THAT no Person whatever shall be entitled to receive a Diplomatic Pension until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his First Commission, nor unless he shall actually have served 10 years.

"2nd. THAT no Person shall be entitled to a Pension of the First Class (£2000 a year), unless he shall have actually served 3 years as Ambassador at some Foreign Court.

"3rd. THAT Pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at the greater Courts, shall not exceed £1,500 a year, and shall not be granted until after 5 years' residence in that capacity at a Foreign Court.

"4th. THAT Pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at other Courts, and to Ministers, shall not exceed £1000 a year after a similar period of residence.

"5th. THAT Pensions in the remaining Class shall not exceed £800 a year, under the same conditions as to time of residence.

"It will be proper further to provide, that all Diplomatic Pensions shall be held subject to the condition of forfeiture in case of refusal to proceed to any Mission of equal or higher rank; and of suspension or abatement in any case in which the party receiving the Pension may be appointed to any other Office of profit under the Crown.

"In addition to these restrictions, the Committee were desirous of checking, by some positive rules, a practice which has prevailed to a considerable extent, of giving Retired Pensions to Diplomatic Servants having sufficient private fortunes; but finding, on mature consideration, great difficulty in laying down general regulations applicable to all cases, they think it better to content themselves with expressing their marked disapprobation of this practice: It could never, under any circumstances, be justifiable; but if the whole Fund be limited, as recommended, to £40,000, the Committee trust that this abuse will be prevented by a consideration of the evident injustice of burdening the Fund with improper charges of this description, to the prejudice of those who have equal claims with respect to their service, and better claims in respect to their pecuniary circumstances."

These Retired Diplomatic Pensions will remain to be provided for hereafter out of the Consolidated Fund.

(3.) An Act to provide for the Salaries of certain High and Judicial Officers, and of Payments heretofore made out of the Civil List Revenues. (Extract.)

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to charge upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland an annual sum of 203,510*l.* to defray the charge of the salaries and allowances of His Majesty's diplomatic servants employed at foreign Courts, and of the pensions which have been granted, or may hereafter be granted to persons having served His Majesty at foreign Courts, the said charge to take effect and commence from the 5th day of April, 1832.

Restriction on Amount of Grants of Pensions.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That until the said sum of 203,510*l.* shall be reduced to the sum of 180,000*l.*, it shall not be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, to grant in any one year a larger annual amount in pensions for diplomatic services than 2,000*l.* in the whole; and when the actual charge shall be reduced to the sum of 180,000*l.*, it shall not be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to charge upon the said Consolidated Fund for any one year a larger amount to defray the charges of diplomatic salaries, allowances, and pensions than 180,000*l.*

Limitation of Diplomatic Pensions.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no new diplomatic pension which may hereafter be granted under the authority of this Act shall exceed 1,700*l.* per annum to any one person for the 1st class, 1,300*l.* per annum to any one person for the 2nd class, 900*l.* per annum to any one person for the 3rd class, and 700*l.* per annum to any one person for the 4th class; and that such pensions shall only be so granted under the following regulations and restrictions; (that is to say.)

1st. That no diplomatic pension whatever shall be granted to any person until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, nor unless he shall have actually served 10 years:

2nd. That no person shall be qualified to receive a pension of the 1st class unless he shall have actually resided 3 years as ambassador at some foreign Court:

3rd. That no person shall be qualified to receive a pension of the 2nd class who shall not have actually resided 5 years as an envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary at some foreign Court:

4th. That no person shall be qualified to receive a pension of the 3rd class who shall not have actually resided 5 years as minister plenipotentiary or minister resident at some foreign Court:

5th. That pensions in the remaining class shall not exceed 700*l.* per annum, under the same conditions as to time of residence.

Forfeiture or Abatement of Pension in certain cases.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all diplomatic pensions shall be subject to forfeiture in case of refusal of the person holding the same to proceed to any mission of equal or higher rank than that in respect of which such pension may have been granted, and of suspension or abatement in any case in which the person holding the same may be appointed to any office of profit under the Crown.

Persons holding Diplomatic Pensions may sit in the House of Commons.

I. That Pensions granted for Diplomatic Services, according to the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the 2nd and 3rd Years of King William the Fourth, shall not disqualify the Holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a Member of the House of Commons.

The Act 2 & 3 W. 4, c. 116, not to be affected by this Act.

II. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, for the Regulation of Diplomatic Pensions.

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

III. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the grant, to the officers and clerks who entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829, of such superannuation allowances as might hereafter have been granted to them under section 9 of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, or shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained, shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, whether before or after the said 5th day of August, 1829, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins; and by the same or any other order or warrant, to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.

Allowances in cases of bodily Injury.

V. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, but not having completed the period which would have entitled him to a superannuation allowance, is compelled to quit the public service by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned, without his own default in the discharge of his public duty, a gratuity not exceeding 3 months pay for every 2 years of service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of this office.

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act, if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act, to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

IX. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

X. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

XI. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

XII. And whereas it shall be for the advantage of the public service that officers holding employments entitling them to superannuation allowances under this or other Acts shall be eligible for other public employments at home and abroad, without forfeiting their claims to such allowances:

Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and Lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

XV. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William IV, had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed, of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as if the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

XVI. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

XVII. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of monies voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

XVIII. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24, as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

PENSIONS TO SLAVE TRADE COMMISSIONERS.

[Extracted from Parliamentary Paper, No. 94, Session I, 1859.]

Treasury Minute, November 22, 1842.

Scale of Pensions for Mixed Commission Courts for Suppression of the Slave Trade.

READ letter from the Earl of Aberdeen, dated 15th instant, referring to the treaty concluded, on the 3rd July last between Great Britain and Portugal for the suppression of the slave trade, and calling their Lordships' attention to the necessity of providing for the expenditure to be incurred for the Commissions under Article 6 of that treaty for the trial of vessels charged with being concerned in the slave trade. The Commissions to be established are four in number: two of these in possessions belonging to Her Majesty, and two within the territories of Her most faithful Majesty.

The British possessions named for these Commissions are the Cape of Good Hope and Jamaica; the Portuguese possessions are Boa Vista, one of the Cape Verde Islands, and Loanda, in the province of Angola, on the western coast of Africa. The appointments to be made in these Commissions, on the part of Her Majesty, are as follows: a Commissioner, an arbitrator, and a registrar to reside at the Cape of Good Hope, and similar officers at Jamaica; a Commissioner and an arbitrator at Boa Vista, and similar officers at Loanda.

Lord Aberdeen submits that the salary to be given to the head Commissioner in each of those courts should be £1,200 a-year; that the salary to the arbitrator should be £800 a-year; and that the salary of the registrar should be £500 a-year. In respect to the pensions which may eventually be granted to the persons holding these situations, his Lordship submits that it will be advisable to adopt a modification of the system according to which pensions are now granted for services under Slave Trade Commissions. He proposes that a graduated scale should be adopted, under which a less sum should be given than has hitherto been granted for the shortest term required; but the sum allotted should eventually be increased in cases in which a more lengthened term of service has been completed, viz., that an officer, after 12 years' service actually completed at his post, may, on then retiring with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, be recommended for a pension not exceeding four-twelfths of his salary; and that in case of his serving longer, the pension for which he may be recommended may be increased at the rate of two-twelfths of his salary for such further six years' actual service at his post. Lord Aberdeen further proposes to follow the practice hitherto observed of giving to such functionary a free passage to his post; and that the sum allotted to each for his equipment should be equal in amount to three months' salary.

Write to Mr. Addington, that my Lords approve of the scale of salaries proposed by Lord Aberdeen for the officers to be appointed by Her Majesty in the Mixed Commissions to be established under the treaty between Great Britain and Portugal at the Cape of Good Hope, Jamaica, Boa Vista, and Loanda, and also of the proposed arrangements with regard to the retired allowances to be hereafter granted to those officers.

Their Lordships also concur with Lord Aberdeen, that the same arrangements with regard to pensions should be carried out in respect to appointments hereafter to be made at the Havana, Rio de Janeiro, and Surinam.

Their Lordships would further suggest, for Lord Aberdeen's consideration, whether the salaries of the officers at these last-mentioned stations may not be reduced, as vacancies occur, to the scale which has been resolved upon for the officers to be appointed to the new Mixed Commissions. Lord Aberdeen will no doubt concur in opinion with their Lordships, that the large increase which is about to take place in the expense of this department of the public service renders it particularly important that the entire establishment should be regulated in future with every practical attention to economy.

With regard to Sierra Leone, their Lordships admit that the unhealthiness of the climate renders it proper that the minimum period of service entitling officers to pensions at that place should be fixed lower than at other stations; but if this period were to be reduced to six years, with an increase at the rate of two-twelfths of the salary for each further three years' actual service on the spot, their Lordships are of opinion that the salaries at present allotted to the officers at that station ought to undergo a very considerable reduction.

Their Lordships see no objection to the course proposed with regard to the passages and outfit of the officers to be now appointed.

RETENTION OF MILITARY HALF-PAY BY PERSONS IN CIVIL SERVICE.

Act 26 & 27 Vict., c. 99.*—July 28, 1863.

Extract of an Act to apply a Sum out of the Consolidated Fund and the Surplus of Ways and Means to the Service of the Year 1859, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

Rules to be observed in the application of the Sums appropriated to Military Half-pay.

XXV. And as the sum of £238,696, being the proportion of the sum of £464,995 by this Act appropriated to the pay of reduced and retired officers which is applicable to the half-pay of officers of Her Majesty's forces, it is hereby enacted and declared that the rules hereafter prescribed shall be duly observed in the application of the said half-pay (that is to say,) That no person who shall, on or before the 28th day of July, 1828, have held any civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, shall have or receive any part of the same for any time during which he shall hold any such civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, except in cases in which the same shall not exceed three times the amount of the highest rate of half-pay attached to the rank in virtue of which he claims to receive half-pay or as hereinafter mentioned, nor in any such excepted cases unless Her Majesty's special approbation be signified as aforesaid, and the officer claiming the half-pay in pursuance of such approbation shall signify in his declaration the civil place or employment of profit which he may hold or have held as aforesaid; but if the net annual emoluments of such civil place or employment shall exceed three times the amount of half-pay as aforesaid, and shall fall short of four times that amount, then it shall be lawful for the paymaster-general, with Her Majesty's approbation, signified by the Secretary of State for War as aforesaid, to issue, on or before the 24th day of December, 1863, so much of the half-pay claimed by any such officer as shall, together with the net annual emoluments of the civil place or employment, be equal to four times the amount of such half-pay, and the officer claiming the half-pay in pursuance of such approbation shall specify in his declaration the civil place or employment of profit which he may have held as aforesaid, and the actual amount of the emoluments thereof, in such manner and form, and calculated up to such period or periods, as shall be required by the Secretary of State for War; but no person who, after the 28th day of July, 1828, has been appointed to any civil place or employment of profit (except in Her Majesty's household), under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, shall have or receive any part of the same for any time during which he shall hold any such civil place or employment of profit (except as aforesaid) under Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, other than that of a barrack-master under the Secretary of State for War, who shall, under the restrictions before-mentioned, be entitled to receive his half-pay: Provided always, that from and after the 1st day of January, 1864, it shall be lawful for the paymaster-general to issue the half-pay or any portion thereof to any officer appointed to civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty or any other Government, since the 28th day of July, 1828, if Her Majesty's pleasure to that effect be signified by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, through the Secretary of State for War, but such permission to be granted under the restrictions before mentioned.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE PAY, &c., OF ARTILLERY AND ENGINEER OFFICERS DURING THEIR EMPLOYMENT IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Extract from Treasury Minute dated October 19, 1855. (Parliamentary Paper, No. 58, Session 1863.)

1st. That when the services of an officer of Royal Artillery or Engineers may be required in a Civil Department, and absence from his regular duties can be allowed without inconvenience to the military service, the Commander-in-chief should grant him leave of absence for a period not exceeding six months; that in such case the officer should remain in regard to rank, pay, and progressive promotion, in the same position as he would have been if granted leave of absence under ordinary circumstances on account of health or private affairs. That the Civil Department employing such officer should make such addition to his military pay as will afford him adequate remuneration, when added to his pay, for the duty he may have to perform.

2nd. In every case and without exception, if the civil duty and employment lasts more than six months, and the officer prefer continuing in such employment instead of going back to his military duty, he should be made supernumerary in his corps; that he should nevertheless retain his rank, with the progressive promotion in his corps to which his position may entitle him: but that he should draw no military pay whatever, the whole of his remuneration being provided by the Civil Department in which he may be employed; that if at the expiration of ten years, or earlier in case his civil employment should cease, he should return to his corps, he should in such case be considered as supernumerary, and fall into the first vacancy; but if after the expiration of ten years he should prefer remaining in his civil employment, he should then be placed on the retired list of the corps; that on such officer first becoming supernumerary, his place in his corps should be filled up by an effective officer, so as to keep the corps always complete and efficient.

Regulations relative to Sec. II. of Colonial Regulations.

Art. 1. Whenever any Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary shall arrive at, or depart from any place in Her Majesty's dominions where there are forts or batteries from which salutes are usually fired, he shall be saluted with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale § II.; and if an Ambassador shall embark on board of one of Her Majesty's ships in an official capacity, he shall also be saluted by such ship, according to the said scale, on his going on board, (and should he proceed to sea in her) also on his finally leaving her; and the same may be observed in a foreign port or colony.

Art. 2. An Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary shall be entitled to be saluted with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale § II.; but he shall be entitled only to the compliment when within the precincts of the nation to which he is accredited; and consequently when he proceeds in a ship of war, he is only to be saluted by such ship, on his quitting her, after her arrival at his destination; and whenever he shall visit in his official capacity any of Her Majesty's ships within the precincts of the territories to which he is accredited, he is to be saluted by such ships with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale; but if he visits several of Her Majesty's ships at the same port on the same day he shall be saluted only by one of them; and although his visit to any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels may be repeated, he shall be saluted by the same ship in the same port only once in 12 months; but when he shall embark on the final termination of his mission, he shall be entitled to the same number of guns from any of Her Majesty's ships which may be ordered to receive him.

The foregoing regulations are to be applicable also to the other diplomatic authorities of lower rank than that of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary differing only in the number of guns with which they are to be saluted, as stated against their ranks in the scale.

Art. 3. It is to be understood that salutes, in conformity to the foregoing regulations, shall be fired in compliment (from either forts or ships) to those foreign diplomatic authorities only whose nations pay the same compliments to Her Majesty's diplomatic ministers in their territories.

Art. 4. REGULATIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF BRITISH CHURCH AFFAIRS

At Foreign Ports and Places.

Made and issued by Her Majesty, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, under the authority of the Act 6 Geo. IV., cap. 87.

I. It is the duty of every Consul of Her Majesty, residing at a foreign port where a British chapel is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV., cap. 87, to pay strict attention to the provisions of that Act, an extract from which is hereunto prefixed; and all British subjects residing at such port, ought in like manner to make themselves acquainted with the same.

II. It will be the duty of Her Majesty's Consul, to see that the orders of the Secretary of State, in regard to the matters to which the above-mentioned Act applies, are obeyed. If they are not obeyed, the allowance granted by Her Majesty's Government will be discontinued.

III. Two general meetings of British residents are to be held in each year at the British Consulate. The Consul will summon those meetings by giving public notice thereof seven days at least before the day of meeting.

IV. The first annual meeting must be held early in the year, and at that Meeting a Committee should be appointed to superintend the temporal affairs of the Church. This Committee is to consist of three officers: namely, a treasurer and two trustees. These three officers are to be elected by a majority of the votes of persons present at such meetings.

V. The Committee will collect subscriptions, and will defray the ordinary expenses of the Church; will carry into effect the resolutions of the general meetings; will attend to any ordinary business connected with Church matters; will examine into any measure which it may be desirable for the General Meetings to adopt; and will report thereupon to the meetings. But such Committee is not empowered to make any regulations; to incur any extraordinary expenditure; nor to take any steps which these regulations do not specifically authorize, without having first obtained the sanction of a general meeting of British Residents; and no meetings, excepting the general meetings, held according to the provisions of the Act, will have the power of making rules and regulations, or of passing resolutions upon subjects connected with the temporal interests of the Church.

VI. At the second general meeting in each year, which should be held towards the close of the year, the Committee will render their accounts, and will make to the meeting a report on the affairs of the Church.

VII. Extraordinary general meetings may be summoned, and held at any time during the year, when the Consul may have any official communication to make to the residents, or when two or more subscribers, entitled to vote, shall make a requisition to the Consul to summon such a Meeting, and shall state the subjects which they may wish thereof to bring under consideration.

VIII. Any person who has subscribed 20*l.*, either in one sum, or by an aggregate of several sums, for the purposes mentioned in the Act, is entitled to be present and to vote at general meetings, during the first year after the 20*l.* shall have been so paid; and such person will become entitled to be present and to vote in each subsequent year for which he shall have made a further payment of 3*l.* But no person can be entitled to be present, or to vote at any such meeting, who shall not have actually made such payments before the notice for such meeting shall have been issued by the Consul, and who shall not have been domiciled in the place for six months. And in case no person shall have qualified himself to be present and to vote at general meetings, the management of the Church affairs will devolve entirely on the Consul, who will appoint a Committee to superintend the affairs of the Church under his direction.

IX. All British subjects resorting to or residing at a Foreign Port or Place, where a British Church Establishment is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV., cap. 87, have a right to subscribe towards the maintenance of such Church Establishment, and the Treasurer cannot refuse to receive such subscriptions.

X. General meetings have the power of making rules and regulations. All rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes of general meetings, are to be signed by the Consul as Chairman of the meeting, and are to be entered in a register book which must be kept at the British Consulate. Any subscribers entitled to vote may have access to that register book.

XI. Copies of all such rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes, are to be transmitted by the Consul, to the Secretary of State, by the first convenient opportunity, for the approbation of Her Majesty.

XII. It is the duty of the Consul to see that the provisions of the Act of Parliament are strictly complied with; and for this purpose it is expressly enacted by the 15th section of the Act, that "no rule, order, or regulations, shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul." The proceedings of the Committee, therefore, as well as the proceedings of general meetings, must be sanctioned by the Consul. But as the Consul's instructions enjoin him to promote peace, harmony, and good-will amongst Her Majesty's subjects, he will not unnecessarily oppose any measure which the residents may be desirous of adopting. If he should judge such measure to be inexpedient, or contrary to the interests of Her Majesty's service, he should abstain from sanctioning the measure, and should refer it to the Secretary of State, whose decision thereupon will be final.

XIII. The Act of Parliament gives no power to the Residents to interfere with the spiritual administration of the Church; this must be left to the Chaplain, who is accountable to the Crown for his proceedings. On the other hand, the Act gives no power to the Chaplain to interfere in the temporal administration of Church affairs; these matters must be left to the general meetings of British residents.

XIV. Only one Chaplain, is to be attached to each Church to which an allowance is granted by Her Majesty's Government under the Act 6 Geo. IV., cap. 87.

XV. All Chaplains who are appointed under the Act, hold such their offices for and during the pleasure of the Crown, and no longer; and the pleasure of the Crown is to be signified to them by the Secretary of State.

XVI. Sacramental alms and oblations are to be distributed by the Chaplain, and are not to be entered in the Treasurer's accounts.

XVII. All Church accounts are to be kept in the currency of the country in which the chapel is situated; but when those accounts are submitted to Her Majesty's Government, they must be rendered in the form which is annexed to these regulations, and the equivalent of the principal items inserted in the accounts must be stated in British sterling money, at the average exchange of the year.

XVIII. Her Majesty's Government is authorized, by the Act of Parliament, to grant in each year, to British Church Establishments at foreign ports, sums not exceeding the amount actually raised during the year by voluntary subscription or by rate among Her Majesty's subjects resident at such ports. Her Majesty's Government will not, however, always grant the full amount authorized by the Act, but will grant only such amount as may be deemed expedient by the Secretary of State, after he shall have examined the Church accounts. Those accounts must be rendered to Her Majesty's Government as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XIX. The Consul and the Chaplain are to recollect that the Act 6 Geo. IV., cap. 87, which authorizes Her Majesty's Government to afford pecuniary assistance to British chapels at foreign ports, does not allude to, and therefore will not render valid, any marriage between British subjects or between a British subject and a foreigner, which may be solemnized in such chapels, unless such marriage be declared or deemed valid by some other law of the United Kingdom.

XX. The preceding Regulations respecting the management of Church affairs are also to be applied to the management of the affairs of British burial grounds provided at foreign ports under the provisions of the Act 6 Geo. IV., c. 87. The affairs of the burial ground should, however, be kept distinct from the Church affairs. The annual expense of maintaining such burial grounds in order should be paid by fees on interments; and whenever these fees produce a surplus beyond the expenses, such surplus must be in British Government or other public sufficient security in the joint names of the Consul and of two Trustees; and no portion of such surplus can be applied to any other purposes than the repairs of the burial ground, without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, signified through the Consul. The interests on money so invested should annually be received, and should be carried to the credit of the burial ground fund; and a report of the state of this fund, together with the burial ground accounts, must be sent off to the Secretary of State, as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XXI. These Regulations are to be recorded in the office of the Consul and shall be of full force, effect, and authority over all Her Majesty's subjects resident at JUDGED BY THE IMMENSE DEMAND, this UNIVERSAL REMEDY now stands the first in public favour and confidence: this result has been acquired by the test of fifty years' experience. These Lozenges may be found on sale in every British Colony, and throughout India and China they have been highly esteemed wherever introduced. For COUGHS, ASTHMA, and all affections of the Throat and Chest, they are the most agreeable and efficacious remedy.

VALUABLE TESTIMONIAL.

Copy of a Letter from the late COLONEL HAWKER (the well-known Author on "GUNS AND SHOOTING.")

SIR.—I cannot resist informing you of the extraordinary effect I have experienced by taking only a few of your LOZENGES. I had a cough for several weeks that defied all that had been prescribed for me; and yet I got completely rid of it by taking about half a small box of your Lozenges, which I find are the only ones that relieve the Cough without deranging the stomach or digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your humble servant.
P. HAWKER."

To Mr. KEATING, 79, St. Paul's Churchyard.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage of the British Empire. Complete in one volume, Royal Svo., corrected to the present time, price 38s.

"The first authority on all questions affecting the aristocracy."—Globe. "Beyond comparison with any other books of the same class, and perfect of its kind."—Examiner. "No one can take up this huge volume without seeing that it is a book of superior merit and value, and such as not one person in a thousand could venture upon accomplishing."—Observer. "Ulster King of Arms presents us annually with a Peerage and Baronetage, which may be classed among the institutions of the country."—Daily Telegraph. "A Peerage like this is really a portion of the historic literature of the country, and should be studied by everybody."—Illus. Lon. News. "As a Book of Reference for Lawyers it is invaluable. They can find nowhere else such reliable and complete Pedigrees, and such accurate information of the families of their most distinguished clients. There is no less troublesome or more interesting way of acquiring historical knowledge than by glancing over the pages of such a Peerage as that of Sir Bernard Burke's."—Solicitors' Journal and Reporter.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Directory of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland. Fourth Edition, complete in one volume. Bound in cloth, £2 16s., uniform with the Peerage and Baronetage. Or in Parts, viz., Part I (A to J), 25s.; Part II (K to Z, and Supplement), 30s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post. "The whole forms a fine and full account of the Gentry of these realms—of that class 'who,' says Sir Bernard in his preface, 'possess, though undistinguished by hereditary titles, an undeniable right, from antiquity of race, extent of property, and brilliancy of achievements, to take foremost rank among the lesser nobility of Europe.'"—Illus. Lon. News.

The Foreign Office List, forming a complete British Diplomatic and Consular Handbook, exhibiting the rank, standing, and various services of every person employed in the Foreign Office, the Diplomatic Corps, and the Consular Body. Also Regulations respecting Examinations, Passports, Foreign Orders, &c. With Maps, showing where Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Consuls, and others, are resident abroad; together with a List of Foreign Diplomatic and Consular Representatives within the Queen's Dominions. Compiled by EDWARD HERTSLET, Librarian and Keeper of the Papers, Foreign Office. New Edition, corrected to the present time. Demy 8vo., cloth, price 5s.

"The Foreign Office List gives the most careful notices of every person depending on, or in any way connected with, the Foreign Office, from the Minister to the youngest supernumerary clerk in his department, and from the Ambassador to the Cabinet Messenger. It moreover enlivens the dull monotony of official detail with biographical notices of the functionaries whose names it records. It is to be found in all the Chancelleries abroad; no Attaché of a Mission great or small, thinks his library complete without it; and it is one of the first objects that attracts the eye of the British traveller as he waits for his passport visa in a Consul's office."—Times (from our own Correspondent).

The War Office List and Directory

Compiled from Official and other Documents, under permission of the Secretary of State for War, by DENHAM ROBINSON, of the War Office.

"This is a very valuable work, and contains a vast amount of information which, up to the present time, has been but imperfectly represented in the directories and reference books of the day."—Observer.

"From the very explicit, yet concise, manner in which the author has carried out the various subjects, it is evident they are founded on good theoretical data, and sound practical knowledge. His practice on field-work and engineering surveying generally, is of itself a volume of instruction to the young practitioner, and, without so entering into abstruse formulæ and mathematical calculations, so as to make the work puzzling, it contains all that is required to render it, not only a source of instruction, but also a most excellent work of reference."— * * * *

"We have never read any book on any subject on which so much is said, and said so well in a shorter space. . . . There will be a great neglect of duty if Miss Nightingale's admirable work is not so carefully studied that it becomes, in fact, the manual of every sick room."—Times. "These 'Notes' are addressed to women, and every woman in the country ought to read them."—Daily News. "The work is but an inexpensive pamphlet, not costing the price of one bottle of medicine, but it is destined, we trust, to reduce the doctors' bills in many families. . . . To every class, from the highest to the lowest, these 'Notes' are addressed."—Examiner. "Every father of a family should change his silver for these 'Notes' (their price is fixed so moderately he need not change his gold for them), and every member of a family should both hear and try to profit by them. It is not too much to say that no domestic library can be complete without them; and considering the doctors' bills they probably will save him, every Faterfamilias who stupidly neglects to get these 'Notes' will deserve to get a stress laid on his last Latin syllable."—Punch. "We wish it may find its way not only into every hospital and workhouse, but into every school and nursery in the kingdom."—Saturday Review.

Mr. Froude is no common writer—his style is vivid and emphatic—he touches some of the most secret springs of the heart's passions—he enchains our sympathies."—John Bull. "There was some confusion in the 'Whist world,' and the necessity of a code of modern laws had become apparent, when a combined effort was made by a committee of some of the most skillful to supply the deficiency. The result of their deliberations is the present little volume. . . . They performed their task with the most decided success. . . . 'A Treatise on the Game,' by Mr. J. Clay, M.P., is appended, and may be read with advantage by the commencing student of whist and the advanced player, and with pleasure even by those who are totally ignorant of it, and have no wish to learn it."—Times. "We have examined this volume at some length, for it is the most able and original contribution to whist literature which has appeared for some time. As a suggestive book—a book calculated to make people think about whist—the treatise of J. C. is second to none."—Field. "Mr. Baldwin's 'Laws of Short Whist' is now indispensable to the good whist player, and from it, by study and practice, the merest tyro may become thoroughly proficient."—Northampton Herald.

CAUTION!!
CHLORODYNE.
IN CHANCERY.

VICE CHANCELLOR Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the Defendant, FREEMAN, was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See Times, July 13, 1864.

Eminent Hospital Physicians of London state that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S Chlorodyne, which is extensively used in Hospitals at home and abroad, and is affirmed by medical testimony, which accompanies each Bottle, to be the most efficacious Medicine ever discovered for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spasms, Rheumatism, &c. No home should be without it.

From W. VESALIUS PETTIGREW, M.D.—“I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an anti-spasmodic and sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhœa, and other Diseases, and am most perfectly satisfied with the results.”

From Dr. M'MILLAN, of New Galloway, Scotland.—“I consider it the most valuable medicine known.”

From A. MONTGOMERY, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—“Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other medicine had failed.”

Dr. M'GRIGOR CAHOOT, late Army Staff, says:—“It is a most valuable medicine.”

J. C. BAKER, Esq., M.D., Bideford.—“It is without doubt the most valuable and certain anodyne we have.”

Dr. GIBSON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta.—“Two doses completely cured me of Diarrhœa.”

From G. V. RIDOUT, Esq., Surgeon, Egham.—“As an astringent in severe Diarrhœa, and an anti-spasmodic in Colic, with Cramps in the abdomen, the relief is instantaneous. As a sedative in Neuralgia and Tic-Doloureux its effects were very remarkable. In Uterine Affections I have found it extremely valuable.”

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep—relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body—without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite.

Beware of Spurious.—The only genuine has the words “Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE” on the Government Stamp. Sold in Bottles at 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d.

A. & F. PEAR'S'S

GENUINE

TRANSPARENT SOAP,

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY.

THE most celebrated Physicians and Physiologists are unanimous in declaring that the vigour of the mind, and the health of the whole frame, depend upon the sanative condition of the skin. In its healthy state it carries off, by millions of porous outlets, the acrid watery particles of the blood, which would ultimately prove highly injurious if retained in the circulating system, and give rise to the most complicated diseases. The skin has also the power of absorbing from any liquid, certain particles when applied to its surface: this renders it peculiarly liable to be injuriously affected by poisonous substances, such as colouring matters and strong essential oils: hence it often happens that persons materially derange the healthy action of the skin without suspecting the soap they have been using to be the cause. To obviate this, and to produce beneficial results, A. & F. PEAR'S assure their customers that their TRANSPARENT SOAP undergoes a second process in its manufacture, which entirely removes all the corrosive alkali (so injurious), its colour being acquired by age only. Its perfume has also been studied so as to make it most agreeable, and not in any way injurious. This fact, with the peculiar properties of the soap, and the care we bestow on its manufacture, has induced many of the Homœopathic and other Physicians to recommend it in Skin Diseases.

Another excellence of this Soap is, that it may be used with either HARD or SOFT WATER, a quality which renders it extremely agreeable to gentlemen of the NAVY and ARMY, or families travelling to other countries—change of climate never in the least diminishing its properties.

Sold in square Cakes and Tablets, price 1s. and 1s. 6d. each; and large square Cakes and Tablets, perfumed with OTTO OF ROSES, price 2s. 6d. each.

To be had of most respectable Perfumers and Chemists throughout the world, or of the Inventors.
